

Pandas

by Angelo Portillo

Ch1: Panda's body

Do you want to learn about a Panda's body? One fact about Panda's is that they have black and white fur. A second fact about a Panda is they weigh 200 to 300 pounds. Pandas are large animals. A last fact about Pandas is they grow to become six feet long. Now you learned about a Panda's body.

Chapter 2 Panda's Diet

Do you want to learn about Panda's diet? My first fact is that Pandas eat bamboo. Also panda's eat leaves. facts about panda's diet is that they sit while they eat. A last fact about panda's is that they eat steams. Now you learned about a panda diet.

Ch:3 Panda's habitat

Do you want to learn about a panda's habitat? One fact about a panda's habitat is that they live in China. My second fact about panda's that they live in a bamboo forest. Third facts about a hand habitat is that they live in a mountain. Now you learned about a panda's habitat.

Ch:4 Panda's Life Cycle

Would you like to hear about a panda's life cycle? One fact about a panda's life cycle is that they are called Cubs when they are babies. A second fact about a panda's life cycle is that when cubs are growing up they can see better since they were blind when they were first born. A third fact about a panda's grow up they live with nobody when before they lived with their mom. Now you learned about a panda's life cycle.

All About the Author

By Anderson Amaya

Hello, do you want to learn about Angelo? His full name is Angelo Portillo. His birthday is November 28th, 2009 and he was born in the United States. Angelo has a dad, a brother, and a mom. They are from El Salvador and he plays soccer with his family. He also has a step brother dog which is also his favorite subject. Also his favorite special is PE.